

5 SPRECHEN UND HÖREN

Say these numbers aloud.

Listen to the audio and check your pronunciation.

6 HÖREN UND SPRECHEN

A. In pairs, look at the word clouds.

Name the topic common to all of the words in each cloud.

B. Listen to the words and guess the cognate.

WORTGRUPPE 1

STRATEGIE

Use cognates

German words that are the same as or similar to English words and have the same meaning are called cognates. Looking out for cognates will help you understand unfamiliar texts.

WORTGRUPPE 2

7 LESEN, SPRECHEN UND HÖREN

A. Read the city names out loud in English, then pronounce them in German.

Listen to the audio recording and check your pronunciation.

Deutsche Städtenamen in den USA

	Inhabitants
Bremen, Ohio	1530
Bremen	569 396
Paderborn, Illinois	26
Paderborn	156 000
Hamburg, Arkansas	2 382
Hamburg	1 852 478
Coburg, Oregon	1 310
Coburg	41 842
Berlin, New Hampshire	9 730
Berlin	3 866 385
Minden, Louisiana	11 275
Minden	85 451
Heidelberg, Pennsylvania	1 240
Heidelberg	160 000
Stuttgart, Arkansas	7 643
Stuttgart	630 305
Dresden, Tennessee	3 027
Dresden	556 227

 B. In pairs, look at the map of Germany.

Name the German Bundesland (federal state) that matches each city given.

Compare the respective populations of these US and German cities.

 C. In pairs, search online for other places in North America with German names.

8 HÖREN, LESEN UND SPRECHEN

Look at the illustrations.

Read, listen, and repeat.

Begrüßungen Greetings

Informell

Formell

Informal and formal address varies in the German world. For example, du / dir is usually used when speaking with family, friends, and people you know.

Sie / Ihnen is usually used when speaking with teachers, older people, and people you don't know.

Sich vorstellen Introducing yourself

Informell

Wie heißt du?
What's your name?

Ich heiße Marie.
My name is Marie.

Formell

Wie heißen Sie?
What's your name?

Ich heiße Martin Schmitt.
My name is Martin Schmitt.

Sich verabschieden Saying goodbye

Informell

Tschüs!
Bye!

Bis später!
Bye!

Formell

Auf Wiedersehen.
Goodbye.

Bis morgen!
See you tomorrow!

Bis bald!
See you soon!

9 HÖREN UND SPRECHEN

A. Listen to the conversations.

Say if they are formal or informal.

B. Listen and answer.

Ich heiße ...

10 LESEN UND SICH AUSTAUSCHEN

In pairs, look at the pictures.

Ask questions to discover what your classmate likes.

Your classmate answers.

Then swap roles.

A: Magst du Katzen oder Hunde?

B: Ich mag Katzen. / Ich mag Katzen und Hunde.

A: Ich auch.

MEINE VOKABELN

Ich mag ... I like...

- Magst du Katzen oder Hunde?
Do you like cats or dogs?
- Ich mag Katzen! I like cats!
- Ich mag Katzen und Hunde.
I like cats and dogs.
- Ich auch! Me too!
- Ich nicht. Ich mag ... I don't. I like...

Katzen

Hunde

Käse

Schokolade

Serien

Comics

